SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith the Administration Report of the Department of Archaeology for the year ending the 31st Karkatakam 1108 M. E. (1932-1933).

General

* Government in their letter R. O. C. No. 553 of 31/E dated the 17th June 1932 sanctioned me privilege leave for six months from the 18th October 1932/2nd Tulam 1108 for Archaeological study and training with the Archaeological Survey of the Government of India, "the excess over the leave I am eligible for at the time I avail of it being treated as advance privilege leave as a special case". Government were also pleased to sanction the twenty days required for my journey to the place of training and back as on duty.

During the period of my leave on training, the Department was placed under the administrative control of the Director of Public Instruction. (vide G. O. R. O. C. No. 553/31/E of 25th August 1932). I handed over charge of the Department to Mr. E. G. McAlpine, the Director of Public Instruction on the 6th October 1932/21st Kanni 1108, and proceeded under Government orders to report myself to the Archaeological Superintendent, Indian Museum, Calcutta.

I was therefore away for nearly six months and twenty days, familiarising myself with the different aspects of archaeological work done in British India, such as conservation, excavation, museum work, epigraphy, ancient art and architecture, treatment of antiquities, &c. A comprehensive programme of work and extensive tours were designed for me by the Director General of Archaeology in India. The knowledge and the experience I gained as a result of my study and tours, are calculated to improve the scope and quality of archaeological work in Travancore.

I returned after my training on the 10th Madam 1108/22nd April 1933, and resumed duty taking charge of the Department from the Director of Public Instruction the same day. Government were since pleased to recognise that the period of my leave was used in the interest of the State when on training with the Archaeological survey of the Government of India; and they ordered the period of my training being treated as on deputation with full pay and deputation allowance together with travelling allowance admissible under the rules for my journey to the different sites and places of archaeological and historical interest (vide G. O. D. Dis. No. 686 of 33/Edu., dated 20th July 1933). I may be permitted to express in this connection my deep sense of gratitude to Government for this great and sympathetic consideration.

(ii) Towards the end of the year, Mr. K. Sivaramakrishna Sastri the Pandit Assistant of the Department proceeded on four months privilege leave and nine months furlough with permission to accept foreign appointment, to work as Research Assistant under the University Professor of Indian History and Archaeology, Madras, for the classification of the Mackenzie Manuscripts. Mr. Sastri was relieved of his duties on the forenoon of the 9th Mithunam 1108; and the place was not filled up till the end of the official year.

(iii) Mr. D. Srinivasan Potti, the Photographer of the office availed himself of privilege leave for sixteen days from the 16th Madam 1108; and Mr. Damodaran Nambiar was appointed to act for him.

(iv) On my request, Government were pleased to sanction a new post of Artist Draughtsman for the Department, for a period of one year (vide G. O. D. Dis. No. 1066/32 Edu. dated 19-9-1932). Mr. V. Padmanabha Pillai was appointed to it; and he took charge on the 5th Kanni 1108.

Tours.

In the beginning of the year, Government directed me to accompany Dr. Arnold Bake of the Kern Institute, Leyden during his tours in the State, and place my services at his disposal helping him in his researches on Folk Music.

After finishing his work, Dr. Bake in his letter dated 30-11-1932 wrote to express his "very deep gratitude for the great hospitality and help rendered to him in his work", and admitted that the assistance given him by me was invaluable.

After return from North India, I visited Kīrtiñgar to study the architectural features of the theatre hall (Kūrtamāham) of the temple, and to examine some old and important historical records reported to be available with the Nambudiris there. Later, I inspected the Kilakkōmatham palace at Māvēlkkara in company with the local Marumat Circle Officer to advise him on the preservation of that building and to ascertain its historical importance. I also conducted a joint-inspection of the Chōlapuram temple with the Marumat Circle Officer, and suggested to him the lines to be followed in its renovation. On the request of the Devaswam Assistant Commissioner, Suchindram, a local inspection of the temple at Ālar had to be made; and a report on its restoration was submitted to Government.

The annual inspection of the old forts of Pallippatt, Kōtappuram, Udayagiri, Padmanābhapuram, and Vattakōtta formed also part of the year's work. The other places visited in the year were Onakkār, Tirumārādi, Pārthivapuram and Kōtakulāñura. My object in visiting them was to collect antiquities, and to explore the scope of archaeological work in each of them. Excellent specimens of wood sculpture were discovered at Onakkār and Tirumārādi; and the study of their ancient characteristics of workmanship also received my attention.

I spent on the whole 36 days in camp. The Paullit Assistant toured for 22 days and visited Madras, Nagercoil, Suchindram, Nallūr, and Toduvattī. His work was mainly epigraphical.

Chithira Tirunal Birth Day Celebrations

An important occasion in which the Department was able to usefully participate was in connection with the Exhibition got up at the Śrī Mahavilāsum High School from the 27th October to the 7th November 1932, during the celebration of the Birthday of His Highness the Maharaja. The display by the Department of rare objects of archaeological, historical, and artistic interest such as copper-plates, inscriptions, coins, images, weapons, pictures, wood sculpture, jewellery, etc., aroused not only great curiosity, but was also widely appreciated.

Epigraphy

The best part of the year's work was in the field of Epigraphy.* The text of 43 new inscriptions was secured and examined in the year

* I am deeply obliged to the Government Epigraphist for India for kindly permitting me to take copies of the transcripts of the inscriptions of Travancore Kings from the office of the Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy, Madras.

most of which belonging to old Travancore kings. The earliest of the stone inscriptions discovered is dated in Kollam 301 (1126 A. D.). It is engraved on the western base of the Garbhagriha of Dvāraka Emperumān temple, Śuchīndram, and registers a gift of land for lighting a perpetual lamp in the Dvāraka Emperumān temple, and for maintaining a flower garden, by the assembly of Śuchīndram meeting in Śuchīndramudayanayinār temple, when Gōvinda-prāñjā-bhītārar Tiruvadi of Cherumukkil was present.

Two inscriptions of the Kollam year 404 (1229 A. D.) were also found in the same Garbhagriha. They record gifts of land, one for offering to the Dvāraka Emperumān by Kaṇṇan, and the other by Kaśavan Araṅgan of Putumatham.

The next two inscriptions are dated in Kollam 574 (1399 A. D.), and belong to the king Mārttāṇḍa of Jayasimhanād, alias Rāvaṇa Rāma Mārttāṇḍa. The first is inscribed on the west wall of the Central Shrine in the Veṅkatāchalapati temple at Kariśūṇḍamaṅgalam. It is incomplete; but refers to the repairs and reconsecration of the temple of Ten-Tiruveṅḡada Viṇṇagar Emperumān worshipped by the sage Romaśa on the bank of Pāpanāśini, a sacred Tīrtha in Tenporundaparni. The land belonging to the temple was placed in the hands of a certain Mukundaṇanda Śrīpāda to be used for the temple and the Maṭha.

The other one inscribed in Grantha Characters and belonging to the same king is from the south wall of the Central Shrine of the same temple. It records that the sage Mukundaṇanda repaired the temple of the God Veṅkatāchalapati and reconsecrated the image.

The sixth one is engraved on the Gōpura of the temple of the Goddess in the Kulāśēkaramudayār temple at Kalladakkurichi. It is dated in Kollam 610 (1435 A. D.), and refers to a gift of land for lighting perpetual lamps in the temple of Kulāśēkaramudayanayinār, and mentions the name of the Travancore king Bhārata-Rāvaṇa Rāma-Mārttāṇḍan.

The seventh dated in Kollam 624 (1449 A. D.) is from the south wall of the Gōpura in front of the Ammanāthasvāmin temple at Śermādēvi, and states that five dancing girls were at their request appointed as second "kūḍi" to the Nuzinār Śrī Kailāsamudayanayinār by the king Tiruppāppār Mūtta Tiruvadi, while he was staying at Vellankolli. The Tiruppāppār Mūtta Tiruvadi mentioned here appears to be Vīra Rāma Mārtāṇḍa figuring in the Navaikulam inscription. Next in chronological order are the two bell inscriptions of the Travancore king Śēmbaga Āditya Varman in the Nambi temple at Tirukkanaṅgudi. They are dated in Kollam 644 (1469 A. D.), and mention that Āḍityavarman of Viśakhāṁ star proficient in all arts gave a bell to the temple of Murāri at Tirukkanaṅgudi. One of them is in Grantha letters, while the other is a translation of the same in Tamil verse.

The tenth inscription dated in Kollam 653 (1478 A. D.) belongs to the Travancore king Chempakaraṁan Tiruppāppūr Mūttavar (I. E. Vīra Rāma Rāma-varman of Tiruppāppūr), born in Revati. It is from the north wall of the Purushōttama Perumāḷ temple at Ambāsamudram, and states that the Mahāsahai of Rāja Rāja Chaturvēdi Maṅgalaṁ, Ūravār, Ūr, Naḡarattār, Keṭṭipati, Bhaṭṭās, four Nāḍus, and Śaivanparikalam assembled together and made certain arrangements before the king's servants for offering and "pūjas" to Purushōttamanayinār.

The eleventh inscription is from Tribhuvanam engraved on the West and South bases of the Central Shrine in the Pushpavaneśvara temple. It is dated in Kollam 661 (1486 A. D.), and records that while the king was encamping in the house of Anantanārayana Bhaṭṭa at Tirukkuraṅgudi, a gift of land was made by him to the Dēvakamikal of Tiruppāvanamochayanayinār for conducting Vīra-Kēraḷan Sundi every day during Bhārapi festival. The king referred to in this is Jayasimhan Vīrakēraḷa Varman II figuring in the Quilon Gaṇapati temple inscription.

The next one dated in Kollam 670 (1495 A. D.) is inscribed on the west wall of the Maṇḍapa in front of the Bagalikutṭṭar temple at Kalladakurichi, and registers a gift of land for maintaining the service called Vīra Kēraḷan Sundi "Pūja" to Agattadi Ilaiyan Kāttan, while the king (Śaṅkaranārayana Veṅṇuman Koṇḍa Śrī Bhūṭala Vīra Rāma-varman Jayatuṅḡaṇād Mūttavar) was encamping at his fort residence in Vilāṅkaḷam.

The thirteenth inscription belongs to king Udayamārttaṇḍa, and states that while the king was encamping at Kaḷakkāḍu, he was pleased to grant certain lands for offerings and "Pūjas" to Udayamārttaṇḍa Viṇṇagar Emperumān. It is engraved on the north wall of the central shrine in the Venkātāchalapati temple at Pallakkal and is dated in Kollam 678 (1503 A. D.)

The fourteenth record is from the wall of the South Varandah in the first Prākāra of the Āḍitya Varuṇēśvara temple at Melachaval. Though considered as one, there are two separate records with different dates in the same. The earlier one dated in Kollam 680 (1505 A. D.) refers to the reconstruction of the temple of Udaiyār at Sēval alias Kānaviniya Pāṇḍya Chatur-vēdi maṭṭaḡalam in Śrāvannādēvi and renaming the said village as Vira Kēraṇa-Nallūr. The latter one dated both in Śaka 1428 and in Kollam 691 (1516 A. D.) states that the king while encamping at Sēval commanded certain privileges being conferred, and also provided grants of land for daily worship in the temple. The Travancore king mentioned in this epigraph is Nayinār Jayatūṅganāṭṭu Mātta-tiruvād.

The west and the south bases of the Lakṣmī Nārāyaṇa-perumāl temple at Ambāsanmadram contain inscriptions belonging to the Kollam year 683 (1508 A. D.), one of which mentions the name of the Travancore king Bhūtalavīra Rāma, and refers to a "Pūlipūdu" to set apart some lands etc. for 'Aḍukkalaccheḷavu' (requirements of the Kitchen) of the king and his son, and to construct the "Ālaya" of Bhūtalavīra. The other records the grant of hereditary service rights in the temple to the Kaikkōlas, Villagers and Adavūḷaiyar by Udaian Tyāgavinōdabhaṭṭan Uḷḷiṭṭār and Nāḷayirama Uḷḷiṭṭār of the temple of Bhūtalavīrarāma Pūḷayārkkōil.

The next seven inscriptions belong to the Travancore king Śaṅkaranārāyaṇa Veṅṅumaykōṇḍa Bhūṭala Vīra Udaia Mārtaṇḍavarman Śrāvāymūttavar. The earliest of them is dated in Kollam 691 (1516 A. D.) and registers a gift of land by the king to the Nayinār Śōi Kāḷāsanmūḷayanayinār at Rājārāja Chaturvēdimatṭaḡalam, a Brahmadēva in Muḷḷinādu, while he was encamping at Vēḷakurichi for the conduct of "Pūjās" in "Ardhayāma". It is inscribed on the north base of the Maṇḍapa in front of the Central Shrine in the Kāḷāsanāṭṭha temple at Brahmadēsam.

An inscription of the same king belonging to the Kollam year 692 (1517 A. D.) and engraved on the north wall of the Maṇḍapa in front of the Kāśīśvara shrine at Ambāsanmadram, states that while the king was staying in Puṭiyavēdu at Kaḷakkādu, he gave certain lands to Daivakarmis in the temple of Tiruppoṭīśvaram Udaianayinār etc. for daily "Pūjās". On the north wall of the same shrine dated in Kollam 694 (1519 A. D.) is another record of Udaia-mārtaṇḍa Varman Śrāvāymūttavar, registering a gift of land to Tiruppoṭīśvaram Udaianayinār, Eṇṇēchavundaiya Nayinār and Nayinār Kariyamāṇikka Ālvār in Vēḷakurichi. A record of the same king dated in Kollam 698 (1523) is found at Manuārkkōil engraved on the north wall of the Maṇḍapa in front of the Central Shrine of the Gōpākaśrāmi temple. It registers a gift of land as Tiruvudaiyāṭṭam to Nayinār Aḷagiya Maṇṇanār, while the king was staying at Puṭiyavēdu in the Brahmin quarters called Vira-mārtaṇḍa Chaturvēdimatṭaḡalam in Kaḷakkādu alias Śōla Kūḷa Vallipuram. On the south wall of the Mandapa in front of the Central Shrine of the same temple, there is an unfinished record of the year Kollam 699 (1524 A. D.) stating that while the king was encamping at Putiyavīdu in Kalakkadu alias Chōla Kulavallipuram, he ordered that Ayyikkudi Uliṇṇār be the 9th kuḷḷ of the Nayinār Alakiyamannarkōil.

Two more inscriptions of this king are found at Ambasamudram, both being dated in Kollam 700 (1525 A. D.) The first is engraved on the west wall of the Kāśīśvara shrine, and states that while the king was encamping at Putiyavīdu he gave certain lands as Dēvadāna to the priests of the temples of the Tiruppariśvaramudayanayinār, Erichandayanayinār, and Karīyamāyikka Ālvār. The other is on the north wall of the same temple, and records that the king having become Śiravaimāttavar made a gift of three gardens for lighting lamps in the temple mentioned above. There is also a record of the Kollam year 701 inscribed on the South wall of the Mandapa in front of the Viśvanātha temple at Teakasi mentioning that the king at the request of his son Viramārttāṇḍan gave certain lands to Alakiyapaṭṭar.

Two inscriptions of the Travancore king Śaṅkaranārāyaṇa Venṅumaykonḍa Bhūtakavīra Udayamārttāṇḍavarman dated in Kollam 706 (1531 A. D.) and 707 (1532 A. D.) respectively are also seen on the south wall of the Mandapa in front of the Central shrine in the Kulāśekaramudaiyār temple at Kalladukurichi, both recording gifts of lands to the temple of Kulāśekaramudaiyanayinār. An inscription of the Kollam year 711 (1536 A. D.) mentions one Jayatunganāṭṭu Śaṅkaranārāyaṇa Venṅumaykonḍa Śrībhūta Vīra Varma alias Jayatunṅa Nāṭṭu Māttavar. It is incomplete; and is engraved on the south wall of the Mandapa in front of the Central Shrine in the Maṇḍīśvaramudaiyār temple at Manappadaividu, stating that the king commanded one Iechuram Pattan of Manappadaividu in Śivalamangalam Kilpidakai be given Śrīpaṇḍārakkannakku. Two other inscriptions are dated in the Kollam year 716 (1541 A. D.). One of these is engraved on the west and south wall of the Veṅkātāchalapati temple at Pullakkal, and mentions the Travancore king Śaṅkaranārāyaṇavenṅumaykonḍa Bhūtakavīra Śrī Rāma Varma. It records a deed of gift of certain lands for conducting the daily 'Pūjās' of Nayinār Udayamārttāṇḍa Viṇṇagar Emperumān. The other is inscribed on the south wall of the same temple and states that the king who looked after the Śrīkāryatu in the temple of Udayamārttāṇḍaviṇṇagar Emperumān in Udayamārttāṇḍa Chaturvēdimangalam wrote and gave a 'Pīḍipolu' deed to Vīrakārlukkuṭṭi of Naraśiṅganallur in Kilvenṅunādu for conducting the daily service of Chempakaraṇan "Saṇḍi".

The next two inscriptions also belong to the same king Śaṅkara-Nārāyaṇa Veṅṅumaṅkoṇḍa Bhūṭakavīra Śrī Rāma Varma of Jayatuṅṅaṇḍu. They are from Ambāsamudram. One is engraved on the south wall of the Kāśisvara shrine and is built in at the end. It is dated in Kollam 720 (1545 A. D.), and states that some lands were set apart for offerings of Śrīkālī in the temple. The other one is dated in Kollam 721 (1546 A. D.) and is inscribed on the south wall of the Maṇḍapa in front of the same shrine. It states that while the king was encamping at Chempakarāmanallūr, he gave "Maṭhapati Kaṇakku" to Ānanda Kūttar, a teacher in Kavīraṇṭha at Tirumelvēli in Kīlveṇṇaṇḍu.

An inscription of the same king dated in Kollam 722 (1547- A. D.) at Tenkāśi is engraved on the south wall of the Maṇḍapa in front of the Viśvanātha Svami temple. It records a gift of land by the king to God Viśvanātha for conducting the service Chempakarāman Sandi while he was staying at Ērvādi.

The next three inscriptions are also dated in Kollam 722 (1547 A. D.). One of them is inscribed on the east wall of the Prākāra of the Veṅkatachalapati temple at Karitūṇḍamaṅgalam. It mentions Rāma Varma Tiruvadi Paṇḍaram of Jayaśiṅgaṇḍ, and states that Śiṅgarāyan, the Stānapati of Mahāmaṇḍaleśvara Rāma Rāja Chinnu Tinmayadeva Mahārāja worshipped the God Ten Tiruveṅkatamudayanāyinār for the welfare of his father, mother, king and Gōvinda Nāyak, and gave to the God some lands and the taxes from Kulasekharamaṅgalam which he had obtained as a gift from Rāma-Varma Tiruvadi Paṇḍaram of Jayaśiṅgaṇḍ. The second is engraved on the east wall of the Maṇḍapa in front of the Gōmati Amman shrine in the temple of Pādar-guṇḍēśvara at Tirappudamarudūr, and mentions Śaṅkara Nārāyaṇa Veṅṅumaṅkoṇḍa Bhūṭak Vīra Śiruvai Udaya Mārṭṭaṇḍavarman Śiruvai Māthavar. It states that while the king was encamping at Kunrattūr, he ordered that Perumān Perumān of Muḷlināḍu be given Śrīpaṇḍārakaṇakku in the temple of Narumpuṅkoṇḍa-aruliya Nāyinār. The last one refers to a deed of sale of land by the same Travancore king to Śrīman Mahā Maṇḍaleśvara Rāma Rāja Chinnu Tinmayadeva Mahārāja. It is inscribed on the main Gōpura of the Ādinātha temple at Ālvār Tirunagari. An inscription on the north-east wall of the maṇḍapa in front of the Central Shrine in the Kailāsanātha temple at Braṇḍēṭam dated Śaka 1472 refers to a gift of land by Rāmappa Nāyaka, son of Goulavasava Nāyaka to Nāyinār Śrīkailāsamudaiyanāyinār in Raja Raja Chaturvėdimaṅgalam, a Brahmadēśa in Muḷlinādu for the merit of Vittalēśvara Mahārāja in addition to the gift of the Mattatiruvadi of Śīravāi in Kollam 723 Āvaṇi.

The next record is dated in the Kollam year 819 (1744 A. D.); and is engraved on a standing stone put up at the old market at Toduvattī. Though damaged to some extent, it mentions Ravivarman Śīravāi Muttavar. It states that when the king was encamping at Kalkulam, he ordered that offenders be punished as in the reign of his uncle Kulasēkaraperumāl.

An inscription of Kulasēkaraperumāl engraved on a slab set up in the Ahgiri Perumāl temple at Gudalūr is dated in Kollam 844. It registers a gift of certain land by the king for conducting "Pūjās" in the temple of Mangaladevī Amman, Alakar, etc. Of the rest, one is a record of a king of Jayaśīfaganād and is dated 3+6 Āni. It is inscribed on the wall of the south verandha in the first "prākāra" of the Appan temple at Śērmadevī, and registers a gift of field to the Śrīvaiṣṇavās in the Appan temple for conducting Ravivarman Śandi; and another gift to those who recite four Vēdās and read Pūjās. A damaged inscription in the same place mentions Ravikulasēkara in an eulogistic poem. It is engraved on the east wall of the second "prākāra" of the Bhaktavallala temple.

One Ravi Varman of Veṇādu figures in a rock inscription at Pachelarkulam in Kīl Āmbūr, while a Virakaraṣa Kulasēkara is mentioned in an inscription on the south wall of the Śiva temple on the bank of the Tāmparaparni river in the village of Suttamallī registering a gift of land to the Bhattās of Udayamūrtāṇḍa Chaturvėdimaṅgalam. An undated record inscribed on the western prākāra (inside the Vāhanappura) of the Śthānamāthasvāmī temple at Śuchindram was copied in the year; and though damaged, it seems to refer to certain gifts of land.

Numismatics.

A collection of old copper coins *belonging to different dynasties of South India was presented to me by a friend Mr. Visvanathan, Assistant Engineer, General Electric Company, Calcutta. A considerable part of my time in the year was devoted to their examination and study. I have been able to identify nearly seventy five of them as follows:—

* These have been sent to the Government Museum here.

Palaeography.

Another useful work undertaken and finished in the year relates to the preparation of a Palaeographical chart* showing the development of the Vatteluttu script in different periods. It is intended for the use of those engaged in deciphering old "Olai" records, and has been commended highly by the Dewan, on whose orders it was subsequently sent to the Archaeological section of the Government museum.

Conservation.

The ancient Śiva temple at Ājur being in ruins was recommended for restoration with out any obliteration of its antique grace and architectural charm, the sight of a religious edifice however small contributing as Ruskin says to the "mental health, power and pleasure of man." Government have been pleased to accept my proposal, and to sanction Rs. 500 for its renovation.

Publications.

The Archaeological sheet of the Government Gazette was continued in the year, and notices of the important inscriptions of Gōvardhana Mārttāṇḍa, Vikkīruman, Virakēralavarman and Kōḍakēraḷa Varman were published in the Gazette with their text and summary in Malayālam.

Subjoined is a statement of the receipts and expenditure of the Archaeological Department for the year 1108 M. E.
